Frequently Asked Questions

What is unclaimed property and why did you receive this letter?

Unclaimed property (funds) comes in many forms: unpaid wages, uncashed checks, customer account balances, etc. If the unclaimed funds are not returned to the rightful owner (you), we must turn it over to the state. Before doing so, we must attempt to reach out to you in order to attempt to reunite the money with you.

Can I get more information on the unclaimed property owed to me?

All available information pertaining to your unclaimed property has been provided on the front side of this letter. No further detail regarding your unclaimed funds is available. If you do not wish to claim the funds, you do not need to do anything further. The funds will be turned over to the state as unclaimed property.

I believe I have received this letter in error. What now?

No further action is necessary. For instance, if you are not the individual or company listed on the letter, you may disregard the letter. We may have an incorrect or outdated address for the correct owner. The funds will be turned over to the state as unclaimed property.

How do I respond to the letter?

If you would like to claim these funds, you may submit your request online at www.ClickToClaim.com. You may also fill out the bottom portion of the front side of this letter as directed and mail the entire letter back to us by the deadline indicated. You cannot request a new check over the phone. There is no fee to claim these funds.

What if the response deadline has passed?

Unfortunately, we are unable to accept responses after the indicated deadline. However, you will still be able to claim the funds directly from the state. Please visit your state's unclaimed property website or www.MissingMoney.com for further information. After the indicated response deadline, all future questions and claims must be submitted to your state's unclaimed property department.

How will I know if you received my response?

If we received your response by the deadline indicated on the letter, you will receive a replacement check. Due to the volume of claims received, we will not send any confirmation or notification to you indicating that your response was received. Please note that once your response is received, it may take up to 90-120 days for you to receive your check.

I have waited 120 days and have yet to receive my replacement check. What do I do?

Occasionally, it may take longer than this, but if it has been more than 120 days since you've submitted your claim and you would like to follow up, please contact us by e-mail at UnclaimedFunds@Crowe.com. In your email, please provide the following information to help us research your claim:

1. The name of the person or company to whom this letter was addressed
2. The name of the company that owes you the funds (shown in the letterhead on the front of this letter)
3. The 9-digit code listed at the bottom left corner of the front of this letter
4. The Letter ID
5. The dollar amount of the property

What if the property owner is deceased?

In this case, a replacement check will be made payable to the "Estate" of the original owner. If you would like to continue with making a claim, please sign on behalf of the decedent, provide a copy of the original owner's death certificate, and indicate that you would like the new check to be made out to the owner's estate. If you do not wish to claim these funds on behalf of the deceased owner, no further action is required. The funds will be turned over to the state as unclaimed property.

What if my name or address has changed?

If your address has changed, please indicate your new address on the 'Address Updates' line. If your name has changed, please indicate that and provide a copy of the documentation showing the name change (e.g. marriage certificate, official court order, etc.). If you are a parent or guardian responding on behalf of a minor, you may sign on behalf of the minor; however, the new check will be made payable to the minor.
