Re: Return of Check from Lamar for Previously Terminated Lease Agreements (the "Leases").

Dear Pat:

I am returning the enclosed Check No. 91433880 dated December 30, 2020 in the amount of $76,750.38 (the "Check") for rent during the period of October 1, 2020 to September 30, 2021. As you know, I terminated the Leases reflected on the Check on July 6, 2020. According to the terms of the Leases, they all expired on October 9, 2020. I have enclosed a courtesy copy of the Notice of Termination Cover letter and Notices of specific Terminations that I sent you this summer. To date, I have not received any correspondence from Lamar regarding a proposal to enter into a new lease, or leases, on any of our properties.

Under the terms of the Leases, the sign structures must be removed from the Premises and the surface area repaired by February 6, 2021. Once the sign structures have been removed on February 6, 2021, we can discuss the rent figures Lamar owes for holding over on the Premises after the Leases expired on October 9, 2020.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Chris Amburgy
